

August 25th, 2008, New York- New York Kids Club Founder, Pam Wolf, has been selected to serve as an expert contributor to ABC's hit television show, Super Nanny!

Pam's hit parenting advice column will be featured on the Supernanny website this September.

Pamela Wolf founded the New York Kids Club in September of 2001. Since that time, the New York Kids Club has grown to become the premiere enrichment center for children 6 months – 12 years.

Ms. Wolf, who was recently recognized as one of 2008's top female entrepreneurs of the year by Entrepreneur Magazine, paired her extensive business background with her experience as a mother of four, to build a strong foundation for the organization that has grown to include six locations.

Under Ms. Wolf's visionary leadership, the New York Kids Club is constantly seeking to set new industry standards in the areas of children's curriculum, customer service, cleanliness and community involvement.

"We are the kids club with heart," says Ms. Wolf, "our team is committed to creating communities at each of our locations and special and long lasting relationships with our clients."

This commitment to community extends to all facets of the organization from contributions to school auctions and selection of staff volunteer committee activities to the many employee enrichment and recognition programs she has implemented to inspire and motivate her teams of educators and administrators. "My talented team is my greatest asset," says Ms. Wolf.

Of the several successful businesses Ms. Wolf has owned in New York, she is most proud of the New York Kids Club. "Celebrating a child's growth and being a part of their first experiences is extraordinarily rewarding."

Founded in September of 2001, The New York Kids Club serves as New York's premier childhood enrichment facility for young people ages 6 months – 12 years, offering unique and innovative programming options for growing bodies and inquisitive minds
